The PC version will follow at a later date. Last year's game was held back to coincide with the 23rd anniversary of the film, and it was widely praised by critics for its high-octane gameplay. In the game, you can choose between Ford Mustang GT and Ford Shelby GT350, and one of four game characters - Mr. The company has already developed a separate update for the game. The update will add a host of new features. The new features will include the capability to add additional car customizations, and NFS Car Secrets which will give users a chance to compete against other players' racing skills. The release date for the game is three days after that of the movie, and EA has stated it will not touch the storyline. EA has chosen to support the movie in more ways. Part of the company's strategy will include releasing a 30-minute promotional trailer ahead of the movie's opening in theaters. The trailer was announced by CEO Andrew Wilson during his Twitter appearance. The film's director, Peter Berg, also

Unless a parent can prove otherwise, any homework over 5 hours per week will be taken into account in the final grade of the student. If a student fails to complete the project, the entire amount of work remains on the teacher's desk. His/her first homework should also be under the same grade standard if the student is to pass the course. This homework is due the following Monday. If it is not passed by Monday, it will also be graded as homework. If it is after that Monday, it is on the teacher's desk for the student to get back to. EDIT: I should mention that teachers are very strict in how they grade these projects. Grade Requirements are letter grades, 1 = Fail, 2 = Pass, 3 = C+ (Credit), 4 = A- (Incomplete), and 5 = B+ to B (Very Good). Any homework not turned in with a project is an incomplete or fail.
